

Position: Relief Support Workers

Location: Roles available in multiple locations across Dublin.

Hours of Work: Flexible

Sonas Domestic Violence Charity are the largest provider of frontline domestic abuse support services to women and children experiencing domestic violence in Ireland and have been providing this service for 30 years. The Service supports over 1,250 women and children each year and currently operate across the greater Dublin Region. The services Sonas provides include a Women's Refuge, Safe Homes, Supported Housing and Community Outreach to women and children who are forced to leave their homes as result of domestic abuse throughout the greater Dublin area.

From time-to-time Sonas requires Relief employees to fill vacancies as necessary. We are inviting creative, enthusiastic and motivated applicants to fill these vacancies and assist Sonas in providing and maintaining the highest standards of service to women and children experiencing domestic violence.

Applicants should hold a QQI Level 7 in Social Care degree and have a minimum of 2 years' experience of working directly with women in a social care setting. They must have the ability to assess the support needs of women and families, have the ability to develop individual support plans and have a clear understanding and analysis of social justice, domestic abuse and other gender-based forms of violence against women and the impacts it has on women and children's lives. They should have a clear understanding of adult protection, welfare and safety issues, together with strong IT skills and experience of using databases. Experience of case management and interagency collaboration with local and voluntary agencies would be an advantage together with experience of working with the Salesforce Database.

In addition, the successful candidate will have excellent organisational, interpersonal and communication skills together with the ability to work on their own initiative, multi-task and prioritise their workload. They should also be an effective team member.

Salary will be dependent on qualifications and experience and will be discussed at interview. Applicants will be entitled to 26 days annual leave.

To apply for this position please forward a detailed CV together with a covering letter outlining your suitability for the position to recruitment@sonasdomesticabuse.ie by the 30th April 2025.
